rites at Arlington for 42 U. S. Soldiers

Army Chaplains Conduct Services. Several Military Organizations Represented by Delegations.

Funeral services for forty-two members of the American Expeditionary Forces were held at Arlington National Cemetery at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The bodies of the soldiers were recently taken from cemeteries in France and Belgium and were brought to America for interment in their native land.

Funeral services were conducted by Catholic and Protestant chaplains of the army. Armed detachments of cavalry from Fort Meyer formed the military guard of honor and fired volleys over the graves of the heroes.

Representatives from the American Legion, Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish War Veterans, and other patriotic organizations took part in the ceremonies.

DAVID C. FOUNTAIN.

David C. Fountain, seventy-seven years old, a resident of Washington for more than fifty years, died last night at his residence, 3400 Alabama avenue. He had been ill three weeks.

Mr. Fountain was born in New York and came to Washington as an employee of the Bureau of Reconstruction at the close of the Civil War. He taught school for a few years and then became connected with the Postoffice Department and at the time of his death was in the classification division of the department.

Surviving him are his son, Clarence Fountain of Philadelphia, and two daughters, Mrs. Winifred Brothers and Mrs. Elizabeth S. Martin of Washington. He was a member of Salem Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock at East Washington Heights Baptist Church. Rev. J. W. Many, pastor of the church will officiate. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

JOHN B. SCOTT.

John B. Scott, veteran of the world war, died yesterday at his home, 2204 Fourth street northeast as the result of wounds received in France. Scott was a native of this city. He was overseas for more than a year and took part in most of the major engagements of the war.

Mr. Scott is survived by his wife, Pauline Scott, and his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Scott, of this city. Funeral services will be held at his home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in Arlington Cemetery.

GEORGE E. REID.

George E. Reid, sixty-nine years old, chief mechanic engineer for the Treasury Department, died last evening at his residence, 1326 Euclid street northwest, following a brief illness.

Mr. Reid was born in Troy, N. Y. He came to Washington in 1892 and became identified with the Treasury Department in 1897 as assistant chief engineer. He was a member of Beacon Lodge, F. A. A. M., for forty years and he was a charter member of the National Association of Stationary Engineers.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Cordelia N. Reid, and two sisters, Mrs. Samuel P. Phillips and Miss Elida Reid, all of this city. The body will be taken to Cypress Hills, N. Y., tomorrow morning for interment.

CAPT. GEORGE R. VENABLE.

Capt. George R. Venable, supply officer of the Pacific Fleet, died suddenly Tuesday on board the U. S. S. New Mexico at San Pedro, according to a despatch received yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Daniels from Admiral Rodman, commander of the fleet.

Capt. Venable began his navy service as assistant paymaster, June 1, 1898, during the Spanish-American War. He reached his present grade by appointment, November 5, 1918. The cause of his death has not been ascertained.

JAMES D. DAVIS.

James D. Davis, twenty-two years old, 1423 Harvard street northwest, died last night at Emergency Hospital as the result of injuries sustained when a motorcycle he was riding was struck at Fourteenth and S streets northwest by an automobile operated by Charles Jaymes, colored.

Impact of the collision hurled Davis' machine to the curb, and it struck an automobile operated by David Thompson, 2012 Eleventh street northwest, throwing Davis against a lamp-post.

Davis was removed to Emergency Hospital, suffering a compound fracture of the skull. He died a few moments after arriving there.

He is survived by his father, Arthur C. Davis, and three sisters, Mrs. W. S. Grillbortzer, Miss Mary E. Davis and Miss Anna F. Davis. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

CARD OF THANKS

MRS. EUGENE S. BRUCE and family wish to express their deep appreciation of the sympathy expressed by words and flowers from their many friends in this hour of bereavement. After the church service all flowers excepting those from the family and friends were sent to the Walter Reed and Naval Hospitals.

NEWS OF ROCKVILLE AND REST OF COUNTY

Gov. Ritchie Appoints William P. Connell Justice of the Peace, Filling Long Vacancy.

ROCKVILLE, Md., June 10.—William P. Connell, of this city, has been appointed a justice of the peace by Governor Ritchie, and has been designated to act as police justice for the county in the place of W. Frank Galtier, recently reappointed, but who declined to qualify because of inadequacy of compensation. The county has been without a police justice and Rockville without a justice of the peace since the first Monday in May.

Governor Ritchie has also appointed Robert A. Barbee, of Forest Glen, a notary public. Mr. Barbee recently resigned as a justice of the peace.

In co-operative buying, the farmers of Montgomery county have, they believe, found a way to reduce the high cost of farming. Their first experience was in purchasing a carload of binder twine, or about twenty tons. It was bought by the Montgomery county farm bureau and distributed among members of the various farmers' clubs recently organized in the county under the auspices of the bureau. Between seven and eight hundred dollars were saved by the transaction.

Licenses have been issued here for the marriage of Miss Mary Louise Iddings, of Brookville, and William P. Garrity, of Washington, and Miss Inez B. McIntosh and DeForest C. Jackson, both of Washington.

The United States Civil Service Commission has given notice that an examination will be held at Rockville on June 26 to fill positions of rural mail carriers at Bethesda and Rockville and other vacancies of the kind which may occur in the county. Only persons actually living in the territory of the serving postoffice are eligible.

The Henderson-Smith-Edmonds Post of the American Legion, of Rockville, has completed its organization by the election of the following officers: First vice president, Harry A. Dawson; finance officer, W. Valentine Wilson; adjutant, Hugh Bickford; executive committee, Edgar Thompson, Nealy Bean, Robert Peter, Lawrence Dawson, and Hobart Morgan.

TO DISCUSS CONSERVATION. Conservation of the natural gas supply of the country along practical and far-reaching lines will be discussed in a meeting of natural gas producers here tomorrow with John Barlow Payne, Secretary of the Interior. The discussion will deal particularly with methods through which the loss of natural gas in the producing fields through inadequate and faulty equipment can be prevented.
